

Activities

1. The lion had to get creative with his hiding spot so that he did not get caught!
Play a game of hide and seek and take turns being the lion.
2. Talk about how the lion and Iris might be feeling at different stages in the story. After identifying these feelings, talk about times you have felt the same way.
3. Create a diorama of the lion's hiding place using a shoebox, paper, and other craft materials.

