

Discussion Items

---

1. What different emotions did Love Monster feel throughout the book?
2. Love Monster has a hard time finding love. He is looking for someone like him. Have you ever become friends with someone that wasn't like you? Tell me about it!
3. Who are some people you love? What do you love about them?
4. Who are some people that love you? What do you think they love about you?
5. Why do you think that sometimes love (or friendship) can be hard to find?
6. When Love Monster has a hard time finding someone to love him, he wants to give up. Tell me about a time you were tempted to give up on something.

Activities

Draw your own Love Monster! Use your imagination and go wild! Here are some things to think about when creating your monster:

- How many eyes does your monster have?
- Is your monster furry? Smooth? Spiky? Scaly?
- What color is your monster?
- How many arms and legs does your monster have? Does it have horns?
- What is your monster's name?
- What does your monster like to do?

Monster Sandwiches

---

Ingredients:

- Bread
- Olives
- Lunch meat
- Cheese slices
- Toothpicks
- A round cookie cutter

Directions:

1. Use the cookie cutter to cut your bread into circles.
2. Add your choice of sandwich fillings (condiments, lunch meat, etc.)
3. Cut a jagged edge on a slice of cheese to make teeth and add it in with the rest of your fillings.
4. Poke a toothpick through the olives to create eyes and a stick them on top of the sandwich. (You may need to cut the toothpicks if they are too long.)